

Senhoras Rainhas
Obidos - Portugal

Óbidos is a stunning historical town, with ancient origins from the Roman period, which is surrounded by the sturdy walls of the Óbidos Castle.

The town is located in the centre of the Western region, about 50 minutes from Lisbon by car.

With a privileged location within the castle walls, the Casa das Senhoras Rainhas is an emblematic building, completely renovated from an old typical house of the village.

The Casa das Senhoras Rainhas is one of the first hotels in Portugal to follow a Boutique Hotel concept within the walls of Óbidos Castle. It offers its guests a privileged location and exclusive architecture, combined with modern decoration!

The Casa das Senhoras Rainhas enchants its guests with distinctive and dazzling details, including the charmingly crafted interiors, the splendid views of the walls, and its terrace with an esplanade sheltered by lush greenery!

Fully renovated from an old typical house of the village. All its authenticity features have been preserved and it has been recognized by the IPPAR (Portuguese Institute for Architectural Heritage).

With a classical-mannerist architecture, the 10 exclusive rooms of Casa das Senhoras Rainhas have absolutely unique views... either to the inner courtyard and the secular walls of Óbidos Castle, or to the historical streets of the town.

Casa das Senhoras Rainhas has an exclusive outdoor space, next to the wall of Óbidos Castle. Here you can enjoy meals from the Restaurant, as well as a drink from the Bar.
