the kobido massage

Art of Japanese face sculpting. A deep, yet relaxing massage that lifts, sculpts and restores your skin's natural radiance. Working on the face, neck, décolletage and upper back, it stimulates collagen production, relieves muscle tension, and visibly firms the skin. This non-invasive facelift refines contours, smooths fine lines, reduces puffiness and promotes deep relaxation. The perfect fusion of beauty and well-being, leaving your skin youthful and refreshed.

the buccal lift massage

Did you know that jaw tension can affect your entire face? Tight muscles can lead to puffiness, fine lines, and a tired appearance. This unique massage is performed from inside the mouth to deeply release tension, boost circulation and define jawline, cheekbones and facial contours. Known as the natural facelift, it reduces puffiness, relieves jaw discomfort, and restores balance—leaving your face visibly lifted, sculpted and refreshed.

the facial acupuncture

Experience the rejuvenating power of Traditional Chinese Medicine with facial acupuncture. By activating key energy points, this treatment boosts circulation, stimulates collagen production and reduces inflammation. Using ultra-fine intradermal needles, it targets wrinkles, scars and pigmentation, improving skin texture, elasticity and tone. With minimal discomfort and no downtime, it offers a natural way to enhance your skin's health, texture and radiance.
