RoseGarden is a romantic haven of charm, where the tradition and the serenity of the gestures exchanged between ladies and gentlemen has been kept.

RoseGarden House is a house with more than a century of history that is intertwined in the mystical Sintra Hills.

It was completely renovated in 2019, combining the old and traditional with the modern.

With 8 exclusive rooms, the unit has a swimming pool with heated water, a restaurant and a terrace in typical Portuguese pavement.

8 ROOMS

The 8 luxurious rooms at RoseGarden House provide guests with an excellent stay.

Each room has unique characteristics and high elegance, which characterize each of these exclusive resting spaces. All the colors and patterns of each of the 8 rooms were chosen to provide a refined and welcoming atmosphere.

ROSEGARDEN KITCHEN

In this space of refined decoration and intimate atmosphere, we invite you to enjoy a light meal.

Delight yourself with the RoseGarden House wraps, pastas, salads and traditional sausages of Portugal. Or with a delicious Brunch, specially designed with refinement and tradition flavours of the region.

If you prefer, you can choose to have your meal on the terrace while enjoying the hotel's outdoor spaces.

A luxury brunch worthy of a member of the monarchy.

For those who prefer to have breakfast later, indulge with the ex-libris of RoseGarden House.

The Royal Brunch that we serve daily is appreciated and praised by all who have tried it. The menu is very diverse and distinct, with high quality products, which results in a unique gastronomic experience.
